(Los Angeles, CA) August 1, 2023 - Multi-talented singer, songwriter, and producer Lisa Dawn Miller, daughter of legendary songwriter Ron Miller, is set to dazzle audiences once again with her latest venture into the world of Pop/R&B. Miller's first single, "I Need Your Love," marks a significant milestone as she enters into an exciting distribution deal with The Orchard, a subsidiary of Sony Music. This partnership will support her mission to reimagine her father's illustrious legacy song catalogue for a new generation of music enthusiasts.

The daughter of iconic songwriter Ron Miller, known for penning timeless classics like "For Once in My Life," Lisa Dawn Miller manages her father's vast legacy song catalogue. She passionately fought for and won the rights to his intellectual properties which had been assigned away under adverse terms decades ago. As part of her plan to cement her father's legacy, Lisa put together an unprecedented deal with Sony Music Publishing and is premiering a new show at 54 Below in New York City on October 8, celebrating her father's music.

"I Need Your Love" features a captivating collaboration with talented rapper Marcus H., infusing the track with infectious energy and soulful vibes. The single showcases Lisa's exceptional vocal prowess and artistic vision, delivering a unique blend of contemporary Pop and R&B elements that will undoubtedly captivate listeners worldwide.

"I'm very excited to be making my Pop/R&B debut with 'I Need Your Love' under my new distribution deal with The Orchard," says Lisa Dawn Miller. "I worked with a lot of amazing talent on this project, including Oliver Richman, Damian 'DJ' Robinson, Paul J. Falcone, and Sam Robertson. I look forward to all the upcoming releases, which will include reimagining my father's legacy catalogue and bringing his extraordinary music to a whole new audience."

Among her many accolades, Lisa's critically acclaimed hit musical, "Sandy Hackett's Rat Pack," has been touring throughout the U.S., celebrating its impressive 14th season. Her success in the theatrical world is further solidified by her role as "Frank's One Love" in the production.

Lisa's commitment to brand building is evident through her diverse projects, including the musical comedy "My Buddy" and her extensive work as a producer and director of multiple recordings and music videos.

Lisa's musical journey doesn't stop with "I Need Your Love." She has an array of exciting projects lined up, including the release of the seductive R&B/Pop track "Rhythm of Me," scheduled for September 15, 2023. Fans can groove to the infectious beats of the EDM Dance single, "I've Been to Paradise," an interpolation of her father's classic, "I've Never Been to Me," arriving on November 10, 2023. And just in time for the holiday season, Lisa will be releasing a new holiday album, "My Favorite Time of Year," on October 20, 2023, which features her father's classic, "Someday at Christmas." In early 2024, Lisa is set to release a touching and soaring new ballad titled "There You Are," which speaks about finding strength and hope after experiencing the tragic, sudden loss of a loved one.
